Affirmations

1) Affirmation of independent consulting. My firm derives no revenue from the manufacture, sale or installation of any product, if such association could jeopardize, tend to jeopardize or give the impression of jeopardizing the ability to render an independent, unbiased decision regarding product specifications or related matters. Further, the firm has no ongoing exclusive affiliation with any group that provides services or installs audiovisual, sound, or video systems where that affiliation could reflect an inability to make unbiased decisions or recommendations regarding the services of that group.
