

InfoComm Foundation's Michael Vergauwen Education Fund

Show your support of the AV industry with a contribution

InfoComm International is accepting donations to the Michael Vergauwen Education Fund to continue Michael's legacy in education and his dedication to the audiovisual industry. Michael Vergauwen was the COO of AVI Systems and a long-time board member of InfoComm International and the International Communications Industries Foundation (ICIF).

As part of the ICIF board of directors, Michael took pride in awarding $200,000 in scholarships to deserving recipients. He strongly believed that growth in the AV industry comes from providing opportunities and support to those wanting to enter the industry and those seeking to develop their careers. With your support, this fund will carry on his beliefs of strengthening the AV industry through education and ensuring future growth of our industry.

Your donations will directly impact the success of educational opportunities through scholarships, curriculum development, community engagement and promotion of careers in the AV field.

Please join others in the AV community. Your support of this fund will greatly benefit the industry and ensure Michael's legacy.
