

Promoting the AV Industry

InfoComm International is the leading voice promoting the audiovisual industry. InfoComm provides information about the AV industry to the public, including students, jobseekers and more, communicates outreach opportunities to members, testifies before state legislatures, provides information on the industry to Congress, disseminates industry statistics and more.

InfoComm created AV Week as a platform for members to interact with the public about the value of AV.

Copyright 2011 InfoComm International