

Sponsorship Opportunities

An effective marketing campaign will shape your customers' image of your company in a positive manner. It is all about market presence, penetration and messaging, and InfoComm has the channels to grow your market share. InfoComm recognizes the importance of staying in front of your customers, and reaching them through various mediums, year-round.

Let InfoComm International be your year-round marketing partner. We are constantly developing new programs that encompass InfoComm's Regional Roundtables, Lunch & Tours and regional conferences, and offering numerous opportunities to maximize your marketing efforts to bring buyers to you.

Key Benefits of Sponsorships:

- Promotion, recognition, customer networking and new business contact generation
- Integrated promotional marketing programs to the industry throughout the year
- Targeted brand, product promotions and customer marketing all year
- Stand out from the competition
- Brand and product awareness
- Press recognition

Be sure to check out our new expanded sponsorship brochure that outlines the full breadth of InfoComm International's offerings including new products like virtual events, mobile applications and more. Our goal is to provide unprecedented year-round opportunities — domestic and international — for this ever-expanding industry. Call us today to discuss how we can help ensure your success!
